

519 21st Avenue

This stunning remodeled Edwardian, completely rebuilt in 2007, is only three blocks away from Golden Gate Park. The home's handsome facade only hints at the high quality and attention to detail found within. Flooded with light, the well designed open floor plan with fireplace and handsome wide plank cherry floors is suited for modern living and entertaining. The main level has a combination living/dining area, powder room, and a gourmet kitchen (with professional gas stove) that leads to a deck overlooking the large level rear yard. The upper level has a master suite with deck plus two more bedrooms and a full bath. The lower level has flexible bonus rooms with shower and fireplace which could be used as an office, guest quarters, or media room.
